APPLICATION GRANTED

In view of the impending trial date of 9/8/2025 and defendant Vincent Cannady's pro se status, the Hudson County Jail is directed to permit Mr. Cannady to have five hours per day of Law Library time, six days per week. In the event it is not possible to permit this amount of Law Library time, the Jail is strongly encouraged to provide as much Law Library time as possible, consistent with institutional procedures.

Re: USA v. Vincent Cannady 24 CR 278 VB

Request for extended hours of law library time for pro se defendant at Hudson Jail for trial preparation

Your Honor:

I write as Standby-Counsel to pro se defendant Vincent Cannady (Hudson Jail inmate #372209). Cannady requests that the Court direct, instruct and/or recommend that the Hudson Jail permit Cannady five hours per day of Law Library time six days per week. The reason for this request is that Cannady is preparing for his trial scheduled to commence on September 8, 2025 which is only 52 days from today.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel A. Hochheiser
